Foreword

TIME IS A LEAF, WIND-BLOWN, A RACE SOON RUN,
AND YOUTH IS NOT ALONE A TIME FOR FUN.
THESE ARE THE HOURS TO SCAN THE ROAD AHEAD;
THESE ARE THE DAYS WE PLAN THE PATH WE TREAD.
LET US LAUGH, DREAM, AND LIVE AND LOVE, BUT HOLD A LIGHT THAT GLOWS ON GOAL ABOVE, BEYOND, AND LEADS OUR RIGHT.

FROM 1962 BROOMFIELD EAGLE

We Dedicate the Raider

Dance Band

Concert Band

The marching band begain rehearsal for the 1966 football season August 15 with the new attraction of the Raiderettes. A group of 10 senior girl twirlers instructed by Marim Maderly. These girls were, Sally Link, Donna Miller, Sherry Ross (Captain), Cheri Berg, Nancy Ogle, Judi Conway, Kathy Quinn, Terri Miller, Paulette Clark, Gerri Harkins.

Marching at every half time football game the band developed into a fine presion marching group which brought them straight first division rations at State Band Day, in Fort Collins, prade and field manuvering competition.

On September 18 the band preformed at pre game and half time for the opening of league season of AFL Denver Bronco, Boston Patriot professional football game at Bears stadium.

The last of the marching season came to an end at the state football quarter with Weatridge Farmers at Jeffco stadium.

Following this the band had two weeks to prepare for the Annual Dinner Concert and the kick off of the concert season. February 14, 1967 the band preformed there annual winter concert and April 7 the band competed in state concert band festival where they received outstanding ratings.

Lee Shounake, John Rowe, Lee Thomas were selected for the Adam State top of the state honor band. Christine Ras, Don Yost, Liz Voth, Larry Goddard, Dawn Patton, Dave Sponner, John Cramp, Dale Elder were selected for the all Colorado honor band in Gunnison March 3 and 4.

".....success is born of sacrifice. You must be willing to endure pain."

(Coach R. Theriault)

Training for distance competition is the hardest work there is in the world of sports. It calls for a certain type of individual. Distance runners come in all shapes and sizes; but regardless of their physiques, the good ones all have one thing in common: they are mentally tough.

This year's edition of Raider harriers posted a successful season. The B squad lost to but one opponent, the C squad was undefeated, and the varsity was again Skyline League Champions.

The season was capped off by a banquet at which the featured speaker was Coach Don Meyers of Colorado State University. Mr. Meyers reviewed numerous cases where "also-rans" developed into outstanding runners through sheer determination.

The plaque for outstanding Senior leadership was presented to Mike Shaw and the "Most Improved Runner" award went to John Goatcher.

RANUM FIGHT SONG

Hey we're from Ranum, give us a cheer!!
Show all the ———— the Raider team is here.
Take that old pigskin, do down to score.
Watch the colors of green and white, we're gonna win this game tonight.
Go up the top boys, score after score
Hey, all you Raiders give a mighty roar!!!
We'll all stand up in the stadium and yell for the green and white.
Hey, you Raiders fight, fight, FIGHT!!!

RANUM HIGH SCHOOL SONG

Here's to the best school of them all.
We sing your praises Ranum High School.
Each time we win, we'll win for dear ol'
Ranum's pride.
We'll bring you honor working side by side.
Here's to the Raiders one and all.
To their spirit strong and fightful.
Hail our colors bold - the green, white,
and gold.
Alma Mater Ranum High!!

I, Judy Wilson, being of sound mind and body, do will my ability to fall down the stairs to my brother, Rick; all my great essays to Mrs. Sparkman and all my sore muscles and sprained ankles to Miss West.

I, Karen Wilson, being of sound mind and body, do will my ability to throw spoons to Kip Woodring, in hopes that someday he'll pay attention to what others are saying.

I, Christine Wize, being of sound mind and body, do will all my hard hours of work in the Attendance Office to some deserving soul, and also all the joy of trying to figure out what to do with your future.

I, Phyllis Wolfe, being of sound mind and body, do will all my worldly possessions to anyone who thinks they can handle them. Also, a word of warning to all underclassmen: Keep a close watch on your bananas and any other tempting tropical fruit.

I, John Yoder, being of sound mind and body, do will Mr. Rhoda My space in the teachers parking lot and my brother my Ranum parking permit sticker.

I, Patricia A. Zglinicki, being of sound mind and body, do will my French IV book to Roxanne Trevarton, so she can erase the marks.

I, Bill Zimmerman, being of sound mind and body, do will my old books and pencils to Mike Brown in hopes that someday he will pick them up.
